The cold war
During the Cold War era, the US marines guarding the Embassy er female workers – who befriended breaking secret diplomatic codes gathering political intelligence and matic spying networks aimed at embarked on establishing diplo- ‘hot war’ is over and we now have as alleged by Tamara question that must be tract had been awarded procedure and that a gations that expenses similar resonance but could be strategic. There is the embargo on the birth of nations. The US government is run. is clearly a far cry from the way the human rights violations by the US government has been retained the ser-...